

2025 ROSÉ OF PINOT NOIR

FLAVOR IMPRESSION

TASTING IMPRESSION

Youthful, easygoing, and approachable. A burst of Fuji apple, bubblegum, and starfruit dance along to a smooth, rich finish carried by herbal mintiness. Beautiful pale salmon color, high acid and focused. While the fruit conveys a light, fresh style the body has a slight strawberry and cream component that broadens its complexity.

2025 VINTAGE DESCRIPTION

A warm, dry spring kicked off the 2025 growing season early and swiftly, with minimal rain or cool-down periods to slow early growth. A short bloom period occurred in early June and was followed later in the Summer by successive heat spikes in July and again in August around veraison. Sunny days and warm nights continued into early September, setting the stage for a rapid onset of harvest. At Brooks, picking began on September 7th for Rosé, followed by the first red wine grapes arriving on September 10th. The Riesling harvest began on September 26th and extended longer than usual, with the last grapes picked for Noble selection on October 8th. The vintage will be remembered and celebrated for its excellent quality, high color intensity and concentrated flavors, resulting from smaller berries and somewhat lighter yields.
